

CTED 726 (CRN 30780) - Creating Higher Student Achievement through Positive Educational Practices K-12

Maintaining a positive outlook, creating a positive attitude in students, and using proven educational strategies can create improved academic and social results in schools. This course will explore the power of the positive approach as well as techniques, strategies and tools for implementation.

As an online course, students will learn and use the power of the online world to facilitate communication, gain awareness and valuable resources tailored to their own professional surroundings.

- 3 Graduate Continuing Ed. Credits
- June 15 to August 15, 2010
- 100% Online: Work at your pace!

This class is directed at all who have an investment in the success of children, including K-12 Educators, Teachers, Administrators, Special Education, Social Workers, Counselors, Support Staff and Psychologists.

In this online class, Best Practices, Collaboration, Student Motivation and other topics will be considered. Participants in this class will become familiar with and use online learning environments such as a Moodle, a Web Board and Wiki to interact with each other and the instructor. Full support will be available for all students. Self-pacing will make this course ideal for parents, travelers and those planning a busy Summer!

No previous online class experience is required.

Summer 2010 Tuition for 3 Graduate Credits: $595.00. $25.00 off for enrollment of 5 or more students from one school building.

How to Enroll:

Go to <http://www.cieclass.com/form.htm> and complete the online form. You will then be contacted for enrollment confirmation and class materials as well as complete enrollment and tuition payment directions.

For questions and answers about this class:

Contact: Tom Kraft (Instructor)

Email: tom@cieclass.com

Phone: (414) 502-0569