How will This Benefit Me as an Educator?

Love and Logic© is based on the premise that students who are invested in their own achievement and behavior are apt to spend more time learning and less time hassling teachers and other students. Instead of focusing on esoteric techniques, Love and Logic© concentrates on how adults working with kids can:

Avoid power struggles that undermine adult authority
Treat the source of behavior problems, not just the symptoms
Understand the influence dynamics on student performance issues
Address issues associated with special needs students

Cost: Fall $560.00 Winter $595.00

All courses carry (3) continuing education graduate credits offered by our academic partner, The University of St. Thomas, accredited by the North central Association of Colleges and Schools (NCA) and the School of Education by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE)

Course syllabus available.
