Hands on Art: Exploring North American Arts
August 2 – August 21, 2010

100% On-Line

3 Continuing Ed. Credit

"Hands-On" ART!

This three credit continuing graduate education course offer students the ability to infuse art into their K-12 classrooms from various North American regional and cultural time periods. Through "Hands-On" experiences with the art mediums, processes and techniques of Native American, Hispanic, and Pioneering Folk Arts, the classroom will be enriched with a wealth of historical insight, artistic expression and cultural diversity. Lots of ideas, materials, strategies and activities will be presented, shared and evaluated. Yes, and it's all On-Line!

- Gain a new appreciation of Native American and Pioneer life by becoming familiar with its many forms of arts & crafts.
- Experience "Hands On" art processes. No, you don't have to be an artist to enjoy this class! You can relax, feeling more comfortable working at home and let your creativity flow. Give your students the opportunity for cross-curricular art experiences within your classroom!
- We will explore a variety of arts & crafts, relating it to math, science, social studies, and language arts. Choose from: Plains Indian Winter Count, Zuni Necklace, Navajo Weaving, Southwest Pottery, Ojibwa Dream Catcher, Inuit Scrimshaw, Colonial Quilt Squares, Mexican Tin ware and Pioneer Crafts to name a few. *

Enhance your ability to connect art with your classroom curriculum and allow your students' artistry to shine. Sign up today! Questions?
